LEGENDS ALIVE   INTERVIEW

INTRO

- Choose a subject from fiction, folklore, fables or history
- Your interview subject should be someone you are "bringing back to life". You will be talking to them as if they are "back" alive in the present-day. The subjects are aware of life after their death.

Research

Interviewer_____Interviewee_____

Interview Subject_____

Locate and compile the following information about your subject.

1. Home/Area Birthplace_____

2. Physical characteristics and/or mannerisms

Facial_____

Clothing_____

Speech/Accent/Dialect_____

Artifactual_____

Peculiar_____

2. Uncover cultural or social issues, trends and normalities for the era your subject lived in. (ie art, fashion, music, media, technology, government, crime, religion morals etc)

3. List a minimum of 5 things that make your subject memorable. Prioritize the items with the most significant first.

A_____

B_____

C_____

D_____

E_____

Anecdotal info_____

_____

The Legends Alive Interview

1. Create a minimum of 6 questions for information you have gathered. Pay close attention to the "type" of questions you are asking.

2. Develop substantial answers to the above questions based on the research you have completed. Familiarize yourself with the information.

3. Develop an intro and exit for the interview. This should include:

INTRO –

- Teaser / Who What Why When and Where
- Subjects Name
- Transition remark

EXIT –

- Transition
- Summative remark
- Your name and station ID

4. Practice the Interview

5. Acquire props and costumes for the interviewee

6. Develop a shot list for the director of the show.

7. Perform the interview on the assigned day.

8. You can use TellyPrompt app on your Chromebook as a teleprompter